SHOWCASING WOMEN COMPOSERS

Florence Price

American Composer

Florence Price is one of 4 women composers highlighted in “Unsung Heroines: The Lost World of Female Composers.” See page 4 for this Documentary. Enjoy Concerts by several female composers. See page 7.

Florence Beatrice Price was an American classical composer, pianist, organist and music teacher. Born in Little Rock, Arkansas, Price was educated at the New England Conservatory of Music, and was active in Chicago from 1927 until her death in 1953. Price is noted as the first African-American woman to be recognized as a symphonic composer, and the first to have a composition played by a major orchestra.
